

As of today, nearly 75,000 refugees and migrants have entered Slovenia, the vast majority with the goal of quickly transiting the country to seek refuge elsewhere. Slovenian NGOs, humanitarian and charity organizations are calling for the public's help in their efforts to assist those in need. There are many local organizations supporting the effort. Find below some of the largest and most active organizations working on the current refugee and migrant crisis in Slovenia. We encourage you to contact one of these organizations, or another working in Slovenia, if you are interested in assisting those in need.
