

U.S. Embassy Ljubljana, Slovenia
Security Message for U.S. Citizens
Increased Vigilance: Protests in Slovenia
December 6, 2012

The U.S. Embassy informs U.S. citizens of the possibility of continued protests throughout Slovenia in the coming days. During recent protests in Maribor and Ljubljana, stones and firecrackers were thrown at Slovene authorities. The authorities responded, including using tear gas to disperse parts of the crowd, and injuries were reported with several protesters arrested. The media is reporting that protests are planned for Ljubljana on Friday, December 7, beginning at 4pm with participants expected to gather in Kongresni Trg and in front of Parliament. Press reports also indicate that further protests are scheduled to take place across Slovenia on Friday, December 21.

We encourage all U.S. citizens to exercise common sense security measures. Be cautious if you must enter areas where you may be a target of crime or violence. Even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations.

Current information on safety and security can also be obtained by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States or a regular toll line at 1-202-501-4444 for callers from other countries.
