1. BACKGROUND

This Mission includes approximately 310 U.S. and 560 locally engaged staff employed by 28 U.S. Government departments and agencies. In addition to the Embassy in Pretoria, there are Consulates in Johannesburg, Cape Town and Durban.

Many U.S. Government departments, such as the Foreign Commercial Service, the Department of Homeland Security, Department of Health and Human Services, Overseas Foreign Disaster Assistance and Food for Peace have based their regional operations in South Africa, reflecting the facilities and services available in South Africa.

The United States' strong trade and business partnerships with South Africa are hallmarks for the continent. In 2010, the United States was the third largest trading partner for South Africa, after Germany and China. Also in 2010, South African exports to the U.S. totaled R57.4 billion.

The United States is the largest portfolio investor (R400 billion) and the largest source of foreign direct investment in South Africa. American companies in South Africa contributed R9 billion in revenue in 2010 which equates to roughly 9% of total turnover of South African industry and Employ 125 000 direct employees, the majority being South Africans.

The US Embassy regularly sponsors workshops on entrepreneurialism, small and medium business management and financial planning for businesses:
