 - m. With the exception of individuals who initiate, authorize, or directly control the sale of U.S. Government property (i.e. PMOs, APOs, or PDOs), or anyone acting on their behalf, U.S. citizen employees and their relatives may participate in competitive, publicly advertised sales of property authorized for disposal, provided the employee certifies in writing:
 - (1) That the property is for the employee's personal use;
 - (2) That the employee will not sell the property during the employee's tour at the post except to another U.S. Government citizen employee who will make a similar written certification; and
 - (3) That, if at the end of the employee's tour, the employee sells such property to persons not having duty-free privileges, the employee will certify, in writing, to the PDO that local taxes and other obligations have been satisfied. Failure to comply with this requirement could result in disciplinary action.
 - n. With the exception of individuals directly involved in selecting items to be disposed of or immediately involved in the preparations for or conduct of the sale or anyone acting on their behalf, Foreign Service National employees, personal service contractors, employees of contractors, and their relatives, are authorized to participate in publicly advertised, competitive bid sales. However, a successful bidder must certify that the property is for his or her personal use and must pay local customs duty and any taxes due.
4. The Embassy reserves the right to decline acceptance of any offer.
5. The Embassy will not accept any offer that is not submitted on the BID FORM, which must be completed and signed. Submission of the bid implies express acceptance of all terms and conditions of sale.
6. All bidders must be in possession of a valid N.I.F or N.I.E.
7. Winning bidder will be notified by COB Friday, February 13. If a bidder has not received notification by Tuesday, February 17, they can assume that the bid was unsuccessful.
8. Payment must be deposited by the winning bidder to the Embassy bank account before 12:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 17. Proof of payment must be sent to GSO immediately thereafter.
9. The winning bidder, if applicable, will be responsible for the payment of any expenses related to the removal of the equipment from the Embassy Warehouse.
10. The Embassy shall release the equipment to the winning bidder on a as-is, where-is non returnable condition.
11. The equipment will remain in the Embassy's custody until all the terms and conditions are met and proper documents have been completed.

The equipment can be viewed during office hours on the Embassy warehouse through Wednesday, February 10. Appointments can be made with Mr. Alejandro Fernandez (Tel. 91-6697028).
