Blues

Sleeping lilly

Transition

Blue is the colour of our earth. The colour of the sky. Mountains in the distance, the sea mirroring the sky. Without Blue we are nothing. Blue shapes us, lifts us up and transforms our lives. It heals you and comforts you. Blue talks to you inner core and being. It's the center of all colours, so transparent and flighty.

To work with Blue colours is like working with life and the force of all that is. To shape and twist . To turn and mingle the shades of Blue and find the essence of our being in the Blue.
