Award Winning Documentary Film

Our School

A captivating story about hope and race, touching on issues ranging from racism, public education and poverty, and the struggle to protect human rights.

Hana Kulhankova

Director of the One World International Human Rights Documentary Film Festival in Prague

One World is currently the biggest human rights film festival in the world, organized by Czech NGO People in Need.

Our School follows three Roma (Gypsy) children in a rural Transylvanian village who are among the pioneer participants in an initiative to integrate the ethnically segregated Romanian schools. Shot over four years, the filmmakers' tender portrait of rural village life and its rhythms fosters an intimacy in the children's profound reality and admiration for their indomitable spirit, punctuated by instances of prejudice and ignorance. Our School is an absorbing of tradition and progress. (Runtime: 95 minutes)
