TRAINING FOR TRUSTEESHIP - BE INSPIRED TO INSPIRE

Introduction by
Neshan Gunasekera

Neshan is a lawyer by profession and is a member of the Asian Society of International Law and the Commonwealth Legal Education Association. He has been working as the Project Director of WICPER and Legal Assistant to Judge Weeramantry since 2007.

Speakers

Natalie Lampert

Natalie Lampert, of Fairfax, Virginia and Stuttgart, Germany, recently graduated from North Carolina's Elon University with a B.A. in International Studies and English. Being part of the Periclean Scholars program was the highlight of her Elon career, allowing her to study, invest in, and travel twice to Sri Lanka. As a TFT 2011 participant, she eagerly engaged with peers from around the world and learned how to better communicate about global issues such as sustainable development, trusteeship of resources, and the importance of volunteerism.

Jesse Lee

Jesse Lee grew up on the East Coast of the United States, and recently graduated from Elon University with a B.S. in Environmental Studies and minor in Leadership Studies. A passion for cross-cultural relationships led him to Elon's Periclean Scholars program, where he has been fortunate to participate in many projects including a documentary, and two international conferences in Sri Lanka. His participation in the Training for Trusteeship 2011 workshop grew out of the fantastic continuing relationship between WICPER and Periclean Scholars, and he is both proud and eager to transform his new knowledge from Training for Trusteeship into strong global actions.
