

Celebrating 60 years of the US-Sri Lanka Fulbright Commission

The Aztec Goddess of San Francisco

A photography exhibition by
Deshan Tennekoon

Deshan Tennekoon read Law at King's College London before inexplicably pursuing a career in photography. In 2009, he received a Fulbright Award to conduct a photographic project at the University of California, Berkeley. He is currently part of a group documenting the changing landscape of Kalpitiya, a high-biodiversity coastal area in Sri Lanka.
