

THE AMERICAN CENTER PRESENTS
A PUBLIC LECTURE

Confessions of a Wanderer: From Colombo to Cape Town to West Java

by

Sulochana Dissanayake

Sulochana Dissanayake is a freelance artist engaged in theater-creation and education, based in Pita-Kotte, Sri Lanka. She graduated from Bates College, USA in May 2009. Formally trained in acting, directing and playwriting, she pursued internships to gain professional theater experience in leading American theaters and programs. In 2009, she won a Watson Fellowship for a year of travel and exploration to study contemporary theater in South Africa and Indonesia.

Monday, December 13th

4:30 p.m.

American Center Auditorium

American Center, No.44,
Galle Road,
Colombo 3

RSVP: 2498169/2498146
Seating is limited