

The American Center, Colombo presents

Promoting Tolerance in Democratic Societies

Speaker

Dr. Jill Carroll

Houston-based scholar, writer and speaker
[Via Digital Video Conference]

To Whom

University students and teachers, activists, NGOs, religious leaders, media and general public

Date

Wednesday, November 10th,
5.30 p.m.
American Center Auditorium

RSVP early as seating is limited - Tel: 2498169 /
2498146 or Email: amcentersl@state.gov

American Center, No. 44, Galle Road,
Colombo 3.

Entrance Free!

Dr. Jill Carroll is a Houston-based scholar, writer and speaker who specializes in world religions, religion and world politics, religion in public life, and applied life philosophy.

She is an Adjunct Associate Professor in the Department of Religious Studies at Rice University. She is a recognized expert on issues of tolerance, philosophy of religion, American religion, and religion in public life. Her areas of specialty include: the role of religion in world politics, comparative world religions, trends in American religion, the impact of religious diversity in global business, and applied life philosophy.

She is the author of numerous articles and books. A recent book, A Dialogue of Civilizations: Gulen's Islamic Ideals and Humanistic Discourse was a Publishers Weekly bestseller in religion, having been in a "Top 10" category on Amazon in May 2007.