

EJ|USA: Getting the Story Out

U.S. Department of State | Vol. 18 | No. 11 | May 2014

Explore how college newspapers navigate various topics related to press freedom and journalism, such as administrative opposition to reporting, disclosing conflicts of interest and harnessing the power of online publishing. Contributing his thoughts on press freedom in the Last Word column is Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs and Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Doug Frantz.

Also in this issue, learn how international alumni of American universities are staying connected in their native countries via alumni clubs. Explore how energy-conscious businesses are reducing energy costs through renewable options, such as solar panels. Read advice from independent filmmakers on how to realize your own cinematic vision on a tight to save deteriorating films. See the Church of the Holy Redeemer in Turkey, a historic structure built in 1035 whose preservation is supported by the Ambassadors Fund for Cultural Preservation. Finally, see how one artist is analyzing data to present it in bold and artistic ways to innovatively communicate information.

Download "EJ|USA: Getting the Story Out" in PDF (10MB; 34 pages)

"EJUSA: Getting the Story Out" table of contents

Keep In Touch

FOLLOW ON TWITTER

FRIEND ON FACEBOOK

FORWARD TO FRIEND

Our mailing address is:

U.S. Embassy Bangkok - IRC
GPF Wittayu Tower A, 9th Floor
93/1 Wireless Road
Lumpini, Bangkok 10330
Thailand

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences