

Technical Trainer for Environmental Action and Food Security (EAFS)

Peace Corps Togo is seeking an individual for the position of Technical Trainer for Environmental Action and Food Security (EAFS)

OPENING DATE: April 15, 2015

CLOSING DATE: April 22, 2015

TYPE OF CONTRACT: Temporary position (May 21 - August 28, 2015)

I- DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Contractor will be responsible for performing the following activities: conduct agriculture and environment sessions for Peace Corps trainees in English; develop, as needed, new training materials, including texts, charts, handouts, visual aids; ensure that all training materials have been prepared; identify and organize, in collaboration with the other staff members, field trips and demonstrations using village resources; prepare the schedule and evaluation methods with training staff; and develop a specific work schedule for the duration of the PST.

II- QUALIFICATIONS: Degree in environmental/agricultural domain / Assistant engineer with major in agriculture.

III- KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

The Contractor should be able to: describe and explain components of agriculture and the environment in Togo; explain key messages on natural resource management, environmental education, reforestation, gardening, nutrition, income generating activities, small animal husbandry, and food transformation; train extension agents in basic management skills; orient and integrate him/herself in the host community; lead/conduct educational talks or village meetings; conduct knowledge/attitude/practice surveys and lead focus groups, conduct IEC activities.

IV- ABILITIES

In addition to good organizational, communications, and teamwork skills the trainer must demonstrate the following:

1. Ability to live and work in a rural area.
2. Ability to work as part of a team with a minimal supervision.
3. Ability to lead and supervise a diverse team.
4. Ability to lead a group discussion.
5. At least one year of progressively responsible professional experience in any field.
6. Ability to train adults.
7. Ability to work with people of different backgrounds and religions.
8. Excellent computer skills

V- HOW TO APPLY

All applications must include a cover letter and curriculum vitae in English with three references, copies of most recent diplomas and a valid police record (Casier Judiciaire) and must be sent by e-mail only to the following address:

jobs@tg.peacecorps.gov . This advertisement is also available on the Peace Corps website:

<http://redirect.state.sbu/?url=http://togo.peacecorps.gov>

NB: Only selected candidates will be contacted.