the 2013*

The U.S. Department of State & the Coca-Cola Company are once again partnering to sponsor 100 university students from 8 different countries across the Middle East, North Africa and Near Asia to attend a month-long business program at Indiana University's prestigious Kelley School of Business, one of the top ranked business programs in the United States.

This multi-faceted, immersion scholarship program is designed to give a group of students the opportunity to learn about business education, entrepreneurship, and leadership through an accelerated curriculum. The program, which begins in June 2013, is fully funded including travel to and within the United States, accommodations, meals, and university and visa fees.
