AFTER THE INTERVIEW

After your personal application, if your file is complete, your visa will be issued within 5 to 10 business days and your passport and visa packet will be given to PTT for delivery to your passport pickup location.

Some Turkish applicants and most Iranian applicants require additional administrative processing prior to issuance of the visa. This process may take 4-6 months or longer. No visa for these applicants can be issued until the administrative process is complete.

If administrative processing is required, we recommend that applicants return home while they wait for the completion of the process. Once the administrative processing is completed, the applicant's case number will be posted on our website. It will be your responsibility to check our website to see if your process is completed. After the administrative processing is complete, applicants can send their passports, and other missing documents, if any, to our office by PTT. After the final review, if your application is complete, your passport and visa packet will be sent to the PTT branch of your choice in Turkey within five to ten working days after we receive your passport.

While waiting for the administrative process to be complete, your medical examination may expire. In that case, you will need to renew the medical examination.

The validity of your K-1/K-2 visa will be limited with the validity of your medical report. K1-K2 visas are valid for a maximum of six months from the date of issuance. Applicants must travel and apply for admission to the United States before their immigrant visas expire.

MOST IMPORTANT

No assurance can be given in advance that a visa will be issued. A consular officer can make a decision only after the formal application and all documents are reviewed, and that officer has personally interviewed the applicants.

Beneficiaries should not make any travel arrangements for departure, dispose of personal property or make other life changes until the visa has been issued.

This office will make every effort to expedite the process. However should complications arise, applicants may be required to return to this office or furnish additional information.
