

Funding Opportunities for Study in the U.S. for Students from Ukraine

U.S. Department of State Educational Exchange Programs For Ukrainians

The U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Embassy in Kyiv have supported a variety of two-way academic and professional exchange programs included those listed below since 1992 that have helped to promote greater mutual understanding and strengthen ties between the citizens and institutions of the United States and Ukraine. ukraine.usembassy.gov/programs-grants.html

The Future Leaders Exchange Program (FLEX) provides opportunities for high school age students from Eurasia to spend a year in the United States, living with a family and attending a U.S. high school. The scholarship is awarded through a merit-based competition, open at no cost to secondary school applicants from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Ukraine. americancouncils.org.ua

The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program provides opportunities for undergraduate students to spend one academic year of full-time, non-degree study in the U.S. Students attend two-year community colleges or four-year universities/colleges. irex.ua/en/education/ugrad

The Edmund S. Muskie Graduate Fellowship Program provides opportunities for Master's level study in the U.S. Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition. irex.ua/en/education/muskie

The Fulbright Graduate Student Program provides one or two years of graduate study in the U.S. and gives graduate students the opportunity to combine study and independent research in a variety of ways: to earn a Master degree; to take advanced courses; to practice teaching through an assistantship in a university; research outside a degree program allows a student to specialize in a particular area; to re-qualify in a different area; or to broaden an academic perspective. fulbright.org.ua/page.php?pid=35

The Fulbright Scholar Program provides opportunities to Ukrainian scholars and professionals to establish new contacts with academic and professional colleagues in the U.S.; to develop collaborative research relationships with U.S. scholars and professionals; and to pursue scholarly work in the U.S. without interruption. Grant recipients have free and open use of their host institution's extensive library resources to enhance their knowledge, gather literature unavailable in Ukraine, and to revise or create new scholarly publications. fulbright.org.ua/page.php?pid=32

The International Fulbright Science and Technology Award for outstanding foreign students is one of the most prestigious international scholarships in science and technology. The program provides for Ph.D. study at top U.S. institutions in science, technology, or engineering. Recipients are chosen through a rigorous multi-tiered, merit-based selection process in their home countries followed by a field and discipline review by well-known U.S. academic leaders and researchers. fulbright.org.ua/page.php?pid=392

The Fulbright Faculty Development Program targets faculty and scholars under the age of 35 who are either teaching at institutions of higher learning or are affiliated with academic, research, or cultural institutions, including libraries and museums, or with non-governmental organizations. fulbright.org.ua/page.php?pid=34

Study of the United States Institutes for Scholars are six-week post-graduate-level academic programs at American universities for mid-career faculty members and focused on particular American Studies disciplines. For more information: exchanges.state.gov/academicexchanges/scholars.html

The Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program provides secondary school teachers of English as a Foreign Language, social studies, math, and science with unique opportunities to develop expertise in their subject areas, enhance their teaching skills, and increase their knowledge about the United States. This six-week program takes place at a selected U.S. university and includes a three-week internship at a U.S. secondary school so the participants can develop their practical teaching skills in a U.S. classroom. For more information: exchanges.state.gov/globalexchanges/teaching-excellence-and-achievement-tea-program.html

The Hubert H. Humphrey Program is a one-year, full scholarship program offered to mid-career professionals who have a commitment to public service, are in current leadership positions, and at a point in their careers to fully benefit from a self-defined program of independent study at a leading U.S. university. The program awards a certificate from the U.S. Government, and it is not designed to deliver an advanced degree. ukraine.usembassy.gov/humphrey-description.html

The Legislative Fellows Program provides young Ukrainian professionals (age 25-35) with a firsthand opportunity to learn the U.S. legislative system, federalism and its basics, checks and balances system, and the civic society role in building a strong democracy. americancouncils.org.ua/uk/pages/33/lfp.html

The Opportunity Program provides support during the application process to U.S. higher education institutions for students who are unable to cover expenses related to the application process but who are highly competitive for full financial aid. The Opportunity Program provides funds to talented Ukrainian students without the financial means to apply to universities in the United States and who are not eligible for (or not funded by) U.S. Government-sponsored exchange programs. moscow.usembassy.gov/oi.html
