Security Message for U.S. Citizens:

Protests in Brussels

on February 5, 6 and 7, 2015.

The U.S. Embassy Brussels informs all U.S. citizens that following protests are expected in Brussels. Police will maintain order.

On February 5 from 11:00 to 14:00 hours a demonstration in support of human rights will be held at Place Poullaert (Justice Palace in green on map). Approximately, 350 people are expected to participate. Local police will be present.

On February 6 from 14:00 to 17:00 hours a march for human rights is organized from the Porte de Namur to Place Luxembourg (in red on map). Approximately 200 people are expected to participate. Local police will be present.

On February 7 from 14:00 to 16:00 hours a political protest Vetevendosje will be held at Square Schuman (in blue on map). Approximately 30 people are expected to participate. Local police will be present.

Demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Belgium enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program \(STEP\). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website where you can find current Travel Warnings, (including the Travel Warning for Belgium if appropriate), Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution, Read the Country Specific Information for Belgium. For additional information, refer to Traveler's Checklist.
