The Embassy of the United States of America, in collaboration with the Vietnam National Academy of Music, is organizing a public performance on April 28, 2011 in Hanoi, with presence of the well-known Jazz band from New York, Ari Roland Jazz Quartet and Vietnamese Jazz icon Quyên Van Minh. This is part of a series of cultural events which the U.S. Embassy Hanoi organizes to further promote cultural exchange and mutual understanding between the United States and Vietnam.

The Ari Roland Jazz Quartet, including Ari Roland (double bass), Chris Byars (tenor saxophone), Zaid Nasser (alto saxophone) and Keith Balla (drums) has been performing together for two decades in New York City, as well as in numerous international tours. They also participated in many of the U.S. Department State's cultural exchange programs and recorded extensively for Smalls Records. Please visit http://jalc.org/TheRoad/bands/2007/ari_roland.asp, or <http://www.smallsrecords.com/art-roland.htm> for more information about the band.
