Call for Applications
2013 GLOBAL UNDERGRADUATE EXCHANGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The Public Affairs Sections (PAS) of the U.S. Embassy Hanoi and the Consulate General in Ho Chi Minh City seek candidates for the 2013 Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (UGRAD). First through third year undergraduate students who demonstrate leadership through academic work, community involvement, and extracurricular activities, and who have a good command of English, are invited to apply for the program. The application deadline is 5:00 PM, November 26, 2012.

Program Description

Funded by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the Global UGRAD provides scholarships for one semester or one academic year, enabling undergraduate students to study in a non-degree program at American universities. The goal of the program is to provide a diverse group of emerging student leaders with a substantive exchange experience at a U.S. college or university.

For the academic year 2013-14, the program will place approximately 65 students from countries in Asia at U.S. colleges and universities, starting in August 2013 or January 2014. Up to six scholarships are available for Vietnamese students. Scholarships are for either one academic-year (approximately 10 months) or one semester (approximately five months). The length of the scholarship award will depend upon the student's interests and availability, as well as placement options and availability of funds. In addition, participants who do not meet host institution language requirements will be eligible for two to four weeks of intensive English language instruction in the United States prior to the start of the academic portion of their program.

All Global UGRAD participants will be enrolled full-time in undergraduate course work chosen from the host institution's existing curriculum to allow them ample opportunity for interaction with U.S. faculty and student peers, and for exposure to U.S. academic and classroom culture. To ensure that students succeed in their new academic environments, host institutions will offer tailored instruction on topics including academic research and writing, critical thinking, time management, note-taking, and studying for and taking tests. Participants will live on-campus with American students.

Students will be provided with opportunities to participate in up to ten hours of community service activities per semester. Additionally, an internship component will be required for all academic-year participants during the academic component of the program. Internships will be related to each participant's field of study and/or career plans.

Scholarships will be available in all academic fields of study.

Participants in this program must return to Vietnam upon completion of the program and may not stay on for degree study in the United States at that time.

Candidate Qualifications

Competition will be based on the potential of the candidates to become student leaders through academic performance, community involvement, and extracurricular activities, without regard to their field of study, race, religion, or gender. Competition is open to all applicants who:

- ❖ Are currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program in Vietnam;

- ❖ Will have completed their first year of undergraduate study by August 2013;
- ❖ Have at least one remaining semester to complete at their universities in Vietnam upon the completion of the program in the United States;
- ❖ Have a good knowledge of English with the minimum ITP TOEFL score of 550 (acceptable) or iBT TOEFL score of 80 (preferred), or IELTS score of 6.5 (acceptable);
- ❖ Achieve at least 7.5 GPA in the previous semester; and
- ❖ Demonstrate strong leadership qualities through academic performance, community involvement, and extracurricular activities.
