

Vietnam: My Voice, My Video

Contest Description

If you had 100 seconds to tell the world one—and only one—thing about Vietnam, what would it be? For the first time ever, the U.S. Mission to Vietnam’s American Spaces (U.S. Embassy Hanoi and Consulate General Ho Chi Minh City’s American Centers) are conducting a Vietnam-wide video contest. If you have a Vietnamese ID (Chung minh thu), are living in Vietnam and between the ages of 15 to 30, we invite you to make and submit a short video (100 seconds or less) for the chance to win an iPad mini and have your video featured on the Embassy and Consulate’s YouTube Channels. It doesn’t matter where you live in Vietnam—at the top, the bottom or anywhere in between—as long as you can create an original video and upload it to the Internet. So get your creative juices flowing and let the world hear your voice and see your video.

Details and Rules

What to Submit: 100 Second Video (containing original content only)

How to Join and Submit Your Video: <https://vimeo.com/groups/171402>

- You will need a Vimeo account to upload your video to the group. If you don’t have a Vimeo account, creating one is free and easy.
- Before uploading video to this group, please ensure that all content is original and your sole property. Videos with copyright infringing material will not be eligible for entry into the competition or prizes.

Contest Start Date: 5:00pm on Friday, January 4, 2013

Contest End Date: 11:00am on Wednesday, January 23, 2013

You are limited to one entry per person. Extra consideration will be given to videos in English. Besides those rules, you have creative freedom, so show us what you’ve got!
