The U.S. Embassy in Sana'a is seeking an individual for the position of Education Specialist in the USAID section.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

The incumbent is USAID Yemen's local expert on all aspects of the Yemen education system and serves as the principle FSN advisor and analyst on these areas. S/he provides input and technical direction into the design, implementation, management, and monitoring and evaluation of assigned activities and projects. S/he also conducts related discussions and negotiations with officials from the Yemen Government, private sector, non-governmental organizations, and donors.

Current programs focus is on enhancing access to quality primary education in the public sector, increasing literacy and numeracy at the community level, and improving the public sector environment for education. Simultaneously, selected investments at the national level will be made to improve policy and expand options for long-term sustainable development in education.

The USAID program is only part of the US Government's total development assistance program to Yemen. USAID The incumbent will be required to work as well with other US Government Agencies, particular the Department of State, to advise them and the US Embassy regarding the programming of their assistance.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

NOTE: All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item.

A. Education:

University degree in Education, Social Sciences, Humanities or related field is required.

B. Prior Work Experience:

Minimum of 3 years experience in education development with demonstrated increasing responsibility for managing, analyzing, and coordinating development projects is required. At least 2 years working in a developing country addressing education or related issues is also required. Significant experience with an international development/donor organization is an advantage.

C. Language Proficiency:

Level IV, strong oral and written proficiency in both English and Arabic is required. Fluent English is required to prepare narrative analysis and reports as well as to represent USAID Yemen with host government, educational institutions, and donor agencies.

D. Job Knowledge:

A thorough knowledge and understanding of the Yemen educational systems, particularly regarding basic education, and the government and non-government entities working in the education field. This must be complemented by a comprehensive knowledge of 1) the economic, political, and cultural characteristics and 2) the social problems, resources, and development prospects/priorities relating to educational development. Must have good knowledge, or the potential to acquire such knowledge, of USG legislation relating to education; USAID programming policies, regulations, procedures and documentation; and of the objectives, methodology, and status of the program and projects to which assigned. Knowledge of the main techniques of quantitative and statistical analysis is required.

E. Skills and Abilities:

Demonstrate managerial skills to effectively manage assigned activities. Excellent skills to deal effectively with officials at the most senior levels of the Yemen government, US Embassy and USAID Mission, as well as donors and non-governmental organizations. Excellent communication and writing skills to conduct clear and effective discussions and to draft clear and accurate documents. Good analytical and presentation skills to assemble, analyze, evaluate and present education sector data. Objectivity to provide unbiased and sound information and advice in assigned areas. Computer skills, especially with word processing, spreadsheet design, web research, and presentation software is required.

SELECTION PROCESS:

When fully qualified, U.S. citizen eligible family members (USEFMs) and U.S. veterans are given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate specifically address the required qualifications above in the application.

Appendix A DEFINITIONS

This diagram demonstrates how an Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM) is also a U.S.-citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM) as well as an Eligible Family Member (EFM).

1. Eligible Family Member (EFM): An individual related to a U.S. Government employee in one of the following ways:

- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610);
- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
- Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
- Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.

2. U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:

- U.S. citizen; and,
- EFM (see above) at least 18 years old; and,
- Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and either:

1. Resides at the sponsoring employee's or uniformed service member's post of assignment abroad or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; or
2. Resides at an Involuntary Separate Maintenance Allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2.

3. Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM): EFM (see above) eligible for a Family Member Appointment for purposes of Mission employment:

- Is a U.S. citizen; and
- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) or a child of the sponsoring employee who is unmarried and at least 18 years old; and
- Is listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), and who is under chief of mission authority; and
- Is residing at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, office of the American Institute in Taiwan.
- Does not receive a Foreign Service or Civil Service annuity

4. Member of Household (MOH): An individual who accompanies a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member permanently assigned or stationed at a U.S. Foreign Service post or establishment abroad, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan. An MOH is:

- Not an EFM; and,
- Not on the travel orders of the sponsoring employee; and,
- Has been officially declared by the sponsoring USG employee to the COM as part of his/her household.

A MOH is under COM authority and may include a parent, unmarried partner, other relative or adult child who falls outside the Department's current legal and statutory definition of family member. A MOH does not have to be a U.S. Citizen.

4. Not Ordinarily Resident (NOR) – An individual who:

- Is not a citizen of the host country; and,
- Does not ordinarily reside (OR, see below) in the host country; and,
- Is not subject to host country employment and tax laws; and,
- Has a U.S. Social Security Number (SSN).

NOR employees are compensated under a GS or FS salary schedule, not under the LCP.

5. Ordinarily Resident (OR) – A Foreign National or U.S. citizen who:

- Is locally resident; and,
- Has legal, permanent resident status within the host country; and,
- Is subject to host country employment and tax laws.

EfMs without U.S. Social Security Numbers are also OR. All OR employees, including U.S. citizens, are compensated in accordance with the Local Compensation Plan (LCP).
