APPLICATION SUMMARY AND CHECKLIST

A correctly prepared application packet facilitates the review process and increases the applicant's chance for an award. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that the application is complete before submitting it to the Fulbright Commission/Foundation or Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy in your country.

Do not send your application to CIES.

Applications must be typed or computer generated. Use 10-point or larger type on all parts of the application.

Handwritten applications will not be accepted.

Responses to questions on the four-page application must fit on the pages on which the questions originally appear. Do not attach additional pages to answer these questions.

All application components must be written in or translated into English.

A complete application includes:

- application form (4 pages)
- detailed project statement (3-5 pages typed)
- detailed curriculum vitae
- three references

Supplementary documentation, where applicable:

- letters of invitation or appointment from U.S. institutions
- results of an English proficiency test
- course syllabi (for lecturing proposals; limit 10 pages)
- bibliography (for research proposals; limit 3 pages)
- evidence of financial support for accompanying dependents

Though not part of the application, a medical history and examination report is required before a grant can be finalized.
