The U.S. Embassy in Lusaka is seeking to hire an individual for the Senior Public Health Specialist (Survey Epidemiologist) position in the Mission's Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

Incumbent is a senior program specialist and key public health technical advisor for Strategic Information (SI) activities within CDC, Zambia, serving the CDC Surveillance and Epidemiology Team in-country under the supervision of the Surveillance and Epidemiology Team lead and Surveillance, Epidemiology, Evaluation and Monitoring Branch Chief. The incumbent is responsible for implementing and executing survey programs so that larger branch, agency, interagency and government goals are met. Job holder works at a project management level with the Ministry of Health, implementing partners, non-governmental organizations, contractors and grantees to coordinate the design and ensure appropriate, high quality implementation and strengthening of surveillance and evaluation projects as defined in the Country Operational Plan (COP). The incumbent guide's partners to plan, initiate, conduct, evaluate, and coordinate complex surveys and to monitor program implementation, document and present results, and translate data into meaningful policy and program improvement. Assessing and reporting progress towards targets set for PEPFAR and the national HIV response requires public health technical knowledge, results-oriented data analysis, and the ability to develop and maintain collaborative working relationships with USG partners at both implementer and national levels. It also requires the ability to distill complex survey methodology and results into clear, simple language that policy-makers can understand and use in programming. Jobholder represents the agency on survey issues at technical, policy and strategic planning meetings, including meetings with collaborators and donors.

A copy of the complete position description listing all duties and responsibilities is available in the Human Resources Office. To request a copy of the position description, send an email to HR\_Lusaka@state.gov.

The U.S. Mission in Lusaka provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation. Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.

DEFINITIONS

1. Eligible Family Member (EFM): An individual related to a U.S. Government employee in one of the following ways:
  - Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610);

- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
  - Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
  - Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.
2. U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:
- U.S. Citizen;
  - EFM (see above) at least 18 years old;
  - Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and either:
    1. Resides at the sponsoring employee's or uniformed service member's post of assignment abroad or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; or
    2. Resides at an Involuntary Separate Maintenance Allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2.
3. Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM): EFM (see above) eligible for a Family Member Appointment for purposes of Mission employment:
- Is a U.S. citizen; and
  - Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) or a child of the sponsoring employee who is unmarried and at least 18 years old; and
  - Is listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), and who is under chief of mission authority; and
  - Is residing at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, office of the American Institute in Taiwan.
  - Does not receive a Foreign Service or Civil Service annuity
4. Member of Household (MOH): An individual who accompanies a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member permanently assigned or stationed at a U.S. Foreign Service post or establishment abroad, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan. An MOH is:
- Not an EFM;
  - Not on the travel orders of the sponsoring employee;
  - Has been officially declared by the sponsoring USG employee to the COM as part of his/her household.
