

VISIT THE U.S. EMBASSY ALGIERS' BOOTH AT THE 2014 ALGIERS INTERNATIONAL BOOK FAIR

This year the USA is the country of honor at the Algiers International Book Fair 2014. Come visit our U.S. Embassy booth, located at the Central Pavilion of SAFEX, and experience a variety of programs and activities.

There will be free English language classes open to the general public, organized discussions with native English speakers, and book chats. In addition, you can receive information on studying in the U.S., scholarship and exchange programs, and more. You can also discover a sampling of the English language books and magazines we have available year-round in our Information Resource Center (IRC) and learn about how to become an IRC member. Stop by our booth to join our Embassy mailing list. See the attached schedule for details about our different activities.

Three American authors — Ms. Jennifer Steil, Mr. Eyre Price, and Mr. Mark Greaney — will present their books, give talks about being a writer and the type of research involved to write their stories.

On November 5, the authors will meet with University of Algiers English Department students to give a presentation and give a writing workshop as a “master class.”

The press and the public are invited to “Meet the Authors” on November 6 at 14:00 at the Ali Maachi Theater. The authors will talk about their books and being a writers. Q &A will follow the presentations.

In addition, three movies will be screened November 5, 6 and 7 at 17:00 at the Ali Maachi Theater:

- The Hunt for Red October (presented by author Mark Greaney)
- The Princess Bride.
- The Lorax
