

DUAL NATIONALITY

U.S. Embassy Buenos Aires • American Citizen Services

A child born in the U.S. may also acquire another nationality if one or both parents are nationals of other countries. By U.S. laws, even if your children also hold foreign nationality, they are required to enter and depart the United States on a valid U.S. passport at all times. They should not enter the United States on a foreign passport or on U.S. visa waiver program.
