LIST OF ATTORNEYS
in the Consular District of Quebec
(as of September 2015)

The Quebec Consular District consists of the counties of Abitibi-West, Abitibi-East, St. Maurice, Trois-Rivières, Nicolet, Wolfe, Frontenac, the territory of Nunavut and all other counties to the north or east within the province. Other counties in the southwestern sector, although in the province, are part of the Consular districts of the U.S. Consulate General in Montreal or the U.S. Embassy in Ottawa.

The names on this list are arranged alphabetically by judicial districts. The order in which they appear has no other significance. "While the names are selected with care, the Consulate General assumes no responsibility for the professional ability or integrity of the following persons or firms."

Despite Quebec's language laws, almost all judges in Quebec courts are bilingual. Parties to an action and witnesses in legal proceedings are allowed to use the language of their choice; either French or English. Most attorneys have a working knowledge of English. All firms listed in the attachments claim at least a working knowledge of English.

As part of its French heritage, the Province of Quebec has notaries (notaire in French) who are distinct from lawyers and cannot appear in court, but can handle certain legal matters such as deeds of sale, wills, mortgages, non-contentious estates, etc. A listing of notaries is included after the list of lawyers.
