

CONSULAR SERVICES

Payment Options

The Consulate accepts the following forms of payment for all fees payable at the Consulate*. To reduce the risk of fraud or theft, the Consulate recommends that cash not be used to pay for consular services.

If paying in the U.S.	Service	If paying in Mexico
Credit Card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express)	Consular services (i.e. visa fees, American citizen services, passports and notarials) Immigrant visa medical exams USCIS waiver applications	Credit Card (Visa, Mastercard, American Express) Banco Azteca cards are not accepted.
Credit Card (Discover, Diners)	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) USCIS waiver applications	Credit Card (Discover, Diners)
Debit Card (Visa, MasterCard)	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) Immigrant visa medical exams USCIS waiver applications	Debit Card (Visa, MasterCard) Visa Electron is not accepted.
Prepaid international card Visa or MasterCard	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) Immigrant visa medical exams USCIS waiver applications	Prepaid international card Visa or MasterCard
Cashier's Check issued by a bank in the United States. The check must be payable to "U.S. Treasury"	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) USCIS waiver applications	Cashier's Check issued in Mexico and payable in pesos. The check must be made out to "U.S. Disbursing Officer."
Certified Check issued by a bank in the United States. The check must be payable to "U.S. Treasury"	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) USCIS waiver applications	Certified Check issued in Mexico and payable in pesos. The check must be made out to "U.S. Disbursing Officer."
Money Order issued by the U.S. Postal Service payable to "U.S. Treasury"	Consular services (i.e. immigrant visas, American citizen services, passports and notarials) USCIS waiver applications

*NOTE: The non-immigrant visa application fee is payable at any Banamex branch within Mexico. Applicants need only bring in the original receipt to their interview.