

GREAT DECISIONS

Foreign Policy Association's discussion group
"Great Decisions" is hosted by the American Resource Center for the 3rd time in Finland.

The group meets at the Kaisa Library
(Fabianinkatu 30)
on Wednesdays at 17:00-18:30 (8 times)
(October 19 - December 7, 2016)

How to apply?

Instructions on how to join this extremely informative and fun peer learning method about international relations please visit <http://finland.usembassy.gov/gd.html>.

The discussion topics include e.g.: Middle East Alliances // Migration // The United Nations // Climate Change // Cuba and the U.S.

Course is moderated by Marko Korkeakoski, MSc. You will receive free materials and a certificate upon completion of the course.

Feedback from 2015:

"I am truly happy I had the chance to participate. The debates were not only eye-opening, but they also increased my interest to learn more about many of the topics."

"A great way to discuss about the events of the world with different people. There should be more groups like this!"
