

Official Translators & Interpreters

Disclaimer: The U.S. Embassy of Paris, France assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following individuals or firms. The Embassy has neither the authority nor the facilities to act as a grievance committee. If you encounter unsatisfactory services by parties listed, however, set forth the circumstances in writing and the complaint will be noted in our files.

Important Note: Find out what fees the translator charges before submitting your documents.

The official translators and interpreters (traducteur-interprète assermenté) on this list are licensed to translate and interpret for the various French courts. Translations of documents intended for legal use in the United States must have the translator's seal and signature authenticated by apostille at the French Palais de Justice (see the information on the apostille in this guide). All the translators listed can translate from English to French, and French to English. Any additional languages are listed with each translator.
