

U.S. - Lebanon ICT Forum 2011

U.S. Ambassador to Lebanon Maura Connelly cuts the ribbon, opening the first annual U.S. - Lebanon ICT Forum on October 14, 2010. Naaman Tayyar, U.S. Embassy Senior Commercial Specialist; Salim Zeenni, AMCHAM President; Ambassador Maura Connelly; Minister of Post and Telecommunications Charbel Nahas; Nizar Zakka, Secretary General, Union of Arab ICT Associations.

The U.S.-Lebanon ICT Forum 2011 is the second annual information and communication technology (ICT) conference and exhibition aiming to showcase the latest American ICT products and to help Lebanese and American business capitalize on the growing bilateral commercial relations. It will take place on October 13-14, 2011 in Beirut.

The U.S.-Lebanon ICT Forum 2010 featured the products and services of over 70 U.S. companies active in this field. Major U.S. companies participating included Apple, Avaya, CA, Cisco, Dell, HP, IBM, Microsoft and Oracle.

In addition to the exhibition, a series of seminars were presented that effectively promoted ICT cooperation between Lebanon and the U.S. and highlighted the latest trends in information and communication technology.

U.S. - Lebanon ICT Forum will be open to all companies featuring American ICT products, equipment and services. Interested companies are requested to send an email to USLebanonICTForum@state.gov.

The email should include the company's name, contact person in the U.S., address in the U.S., contact person in Lebanon, address in Lebanon and a brief description of the company's activities. Please note that space may be limited and priority will be given to companies on a first-come, first-serve basis.