

Hausa Instructor -- US Embassy Abuja

Job Requirements

Job Description: The Post Language Program at the U.S. Embassy is seeking a fluent Hausa speaker with teaching experience to instruct U.S. Mission personnel in basic and intermediate Hausa. This position will teach two different courses. The first course will be an introduction to Hausa. The second course will provide more in-depth instruction for those Embassy employees with a fundamental knowledge of Hausa.

Job Requirements:

- 1) The Hausa instructor must have teaching experience. A teaching degree/certificate and/or prior experience in foreign-language teaching is highly desirable; prior experience teaching Hausa and/or teaching adult learners is will also be taken into consideration.
- 2) The instructor must be able to meet at the Embassy two-to-three times per week for a total of 5 hours per week. The days and times will be set according to the availability of the instructor. The instructor is expected to submit a course outline for each class in advance.
- 3) The instructor must provide one-to-two references who can speak to their teaching experience.

Compensation: The instructor will teach for 44 weeks spread throughout one calendar year (at least two teaching breaks will be scheduled by the Embassy, with input from the Instructor). The pay for the one-year contract is N1,504,000, paid at the hourly rate of N6,836 per hour.

Pay received will be based on actual hours worked. The contractor must submit a monthly invoice signed by the post language officer. There will be no compensation for travel, retirement or health benefits offered.

How to Apply: Direct all inquiries to the Post Language Officer, Megan Ahearn. Please submit resumes or CVs and references to AhearnM@State.gov for consideration no later than August 3, 2012. Candidates on the short list will be invited for an interview. The selected candidate will be notified directly by email or phone.
