   COM

   This booklet provides an overview of factors that put children at risk of entering the sex trade and identifies the practices of those who profit from and abuse these children. The booklet also enumerates efforts to stop this abuse, as outlined by the First World Congress Against the Commercial Exploitation of Children.
R 323.631 UNI

This report assesses existing estimates of the national cost of illegal aliens to all levels of government, examines the items that account for much of the variation in these estimates and identifies areas in which the estimates could be improved.

331.6272073 CON

Conover takes dangerous personal risks, as he covers a group of Mexicans, and ranges across Idaho, Arizona, and Florida, describing how these people migrate within the United States.

R 305.9 STE

The author examines the life of four illegal immigrants, through moving interviews, hoping that readers will understand that these people’s circumstances are not all of one kind, and perhaps we, after all are not different from them.

325.73 REI

This revised edition includes extensive discussion of undocumented immigrants, the 1990 immigration act, recent changes in refugee status, and the new wave of East European and Soviet immigrants.

325.272 EHR

In this study, the authors focus on the Mexican immigration problem in its historical and cultural context and examine the possible consequences of various policies aimed at dealing with it.
