CITY UNIVERSITY OF SEATTLE TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS

We're in touch every day with people from all walks of life, all over the world. With thousands of international students attending locations in the U.S., Canada, Australia, China, Mexico, Greece, Romania, Slovakia and the Czech Republic, CityU is truly a global university.

City University of Seattle is making available 20 tuition scholarships each year in the amount of $3,000 to new applicants from outside of the U.S. who have never applied to or attended CityU (i.e. students who list their present address as an address outside of the U.S. and who receive an 'initial attendance' I-20 for a new entry into the U.S.). Students who are conditionally admitted to an academic program qualify; however, the tuition discount can only be applied towards academic classes (and not ESL classes).

TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY MBA SCHOLARSHIPS

The Neeley School of Business at Texas Christian University (TCU) puts bright minds to work in a variety of learning environments. Brilliant faculty members electrify classrooms. Nationally and internationally renowned executives make powerful connections. And real-world work experiences ensure that tomorrow's technology and business processes become business as usual. Everything we do is geared toward forging the next generation of leaders — one unique person at a time.

The large majority of our students receive scholarship or graduate assistant awards from the Neeley School. The award decisions are made on the basis of the credentials presented with your admission application. Many factors are weighed including prior academic performance, relevant test scores, professional work experience, motivation, maturity and leadership ability. The deadline for first round of MBA Program priority scholarship is November 1st, 2012.

SEMESTER AT SEA OFFERS VOYAGE PROJECT AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Semester at Sea, in partnership with the Unreasonable Institute, is launching the "Unreasonable at Sea" project on the Spring 2013 voyage. Unreasonable at Sea is an international accelerator for tech entrepreneurs that will enable Semester at Sea students to study entrepreneurship while tackling the world's most pressing issues with those who are actually doing the work. Participants will have the opportunity to sail, work, and learn from some of the world's most renowned innovators and mentors.

Semester at Sea will offer a limited number of scholarships, up to $10,000, to students selected as Unreasonable Scholars. Scholars, who will be expected to prepare extensive research in advance of the voyage, will work with the Unreasonable at Sea entrepreneurs and staff to plan, coordinate, and attend activities in the field and facilitate discussions.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY NEW ORLEANS INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM IS NOW OPEN

The Loyola Intensive English Program (LIEP), part of Loyola University New Orleans, is happy to announce that it is taking applications! You may have heard that it shut down after Hurricane Katrina in 2005, but it reopened in 2009 and has since received students from over all over the world to study intermediate- and advanced-level English.

Classes at LIEP are small, and in addition to 20 hours per week of classroom study, students receive two hours a week of individual tutoring. It also offers a Pilot Program where students are conditionally admitted to Loyola University. Students in this program earn up to 6 hours of university elective credit from 2 LIEP classes and 6 hours from two other academic classes. The Pilot Program provides students with the language skills, the cultural knowledge, and the study skills necessary for success in both undergraduate and graduate programs.
