

United States Embassy Dakar, Senegal
Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Upcoming Elections in Senegal
June 12, 2014

On Sunday June 29, 2014 Senegal will hold local elections. Some campaigning has begun, and, other than an incident in Yoff on May 31, the situation in country has been generally peaceful. The potential for violence may increase between now and when the election results are announced.

U.S. citizens are encouraged to stay informed and to practice good situational awareness when moving around in Senegal. Civil unrest or disturbances are not anticipated, but U.S. citizens should remain observant and plan accordingly. Be aware that demonstrations intended to be peaceful can quickly escalate into violence. Avoid crowds, political gatherings, and street demonstrations, even if they appear to be peaceful. Exercise caution when in the vicinity of demonstrations, monitor media coverage of local events, and be aware of your surroundings at all times.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Senegal enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website, where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution. Read the Country Specific Information for Senegal and neighboring countries. For additional information, refer to the Traveler's Checklist on the State Department's website.

Contact the U.S. embassy or consulate for up-to-date information on travel restrictions. You can also call 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or 1-202-501-4444 from other countries. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays).
