INTRODUCTION

The U.S. Embassy in Stockholm assumes no responsibility or liability for the professional ability or reputation of, or the quality of services provided by, the following persons or firms. Inclusion of this list is in no way an endorsement by the Department of State or the U.S. Embassy. Names are listed alphabetically within each province (except the three major cities: Stockholm, Göteborg and Malmö), and the order in which they appear has no other significance. The information in the list on professional credentials, areas of expertise and language ability are provided directly by the lawyers. You may receive additional information about the individuals by contacting the Swedish Bar Association: www.advokatsamfundet.se.

BANKS: The Swedish Banker's Association has a list of banks in Sweden on their http://www.swedishbankers.se/web/bf.nsf/pages/startpage_eng.html.

NOTARIES PUBLIC: A Notary Public in Sweden is always a person with a law degree. Please look in the yellow pages under "Notarius Publicus" for contact information. Usually there is one Notary Public appointed per city, except for Stockholm which has several.

NOTE: Dialing from outside Sweden - use country code +46 and delete the first 0 in the telephone number
