ANKARA, April 26, 1967

EXCELLENCY,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your notes dated March 15, 1967, No: 1301 and March 30, 1967, No: 1375. n2

-----Footnotes-----

n2 Not printed.

-----End Footnotes-----

Referring to those notes and also to the letter of April 5, 1967 n2 addressed by Mr. Lincoln, Counsellor for Public Affairs of the Embassy to Mr. Resat Temizer, Director General of the Ministry, I have the honour to inform you that the Turkish Government agrees to the temporary extension of the Fulbright Agreement between [*2] the United States of America and the Republic of Turkey, signed on December 27, 1949 n3 and whose article 13 n4 had been amended in 1957 and 1960. n5 n3 TIAS 2111; 1 UST 603.

-----Footnotes-----

n4 Should read "article 11".

n5 TIAS 3737, 4458; 8 UST 41; 11 UST 399.

-----End Footnotes-----

Pending the completion of the negotiations for a new agreement, the Agreement will be temporarily extended with the exception of article 11, which will be amended by exchange of Notes, by inserting the following additional paragraph, preceding the last two paragraphs and immediately following the paragraph which ends with the words ". . . . Commodities Agreement of February 13, 1959":

"In addition to the funds provided for in the previous paragraphs of this Article, the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Turkey agree that, there may be used for the purposes of this agreement such other Turkish Liras as may be held or available for expenditure by the Government of the United States of America, provided that the Turkish Liras [*3] used for the expenditures of the Fulbright Commission in Turkey will not, in any way, be converted into foreign currency".

Upon receipt of a note from your Excellency indicating that the foregoing provision is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America, the Government of Turkey will consider that this note and your reply thereto constitute an agreement to enter into force on the date of your note in reply.

Please accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.

The American Ambassador to the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs

ANKARA, May 2, 1967

No. 1517

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your note dated April 26, 1967, No. 310.366-KULT/1-57, in response to our notes dated March 15, 1967, No. 1301, and March 30, 1967, No. 1375.

I have the honor to inform you the Government of the United States of America agrees that the Fulbright Agreement between the United States and the Republic of Turkey, signed on December 27, 1949 and amended by exchange of notes in 1957, 1960, and 1961, n1 be extended pending completion of negotiations of a new agreement by inserting in Article 11 the following wording proposed in your note [*4] of April 26, 1967, preceding the last two paragraphs and immediately following the paragraph which ends with the words ". . . Commodities Agreement of February 13, 1959":

"In addition to the funds provided for in the previous paragraphs of this article, the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Turkey agree that there may be used for the purposes of this agreement such other Turkish Liras as may be held or available for expenditure by the Government of the United States of America, provided that the Turkish Liras used for expenditures of the Fulbright Commission in Turkey will not, in any way, be converted into foreign currency."
